GENERAL REGULATIONS

1. ENTRIES

Music and Scottish Country Dance entries will be accepted up to and including 19th January 2019. Speech and Drama entries will be accepted up to and including 31st January 2019.

Entries should be made on-line by following the link on www.ayrshiremusicfestival.org.uk

Incomplete entries will not be accepted.

Late entries will be accepted only in very exceptional circumstances at the discretion of the Committee.

The Committee reserves the right to refuse any entry without assigning any reason for such refusal.

2. COMPETITORS

Competitors shall not take part in more than one competing Choir, Ensemble or Dance Team in the same competition. This regulation does not apply to conductors or to competitors playing a different instrument in a second ensemble or class 124, adult choirs

No substitutes will be allowed for named competitors.

Where a competitor has won an Open Competition, they may re-enter the same competition one more time.

Members of School Staff must not take part in any School Group but may be a Piano Accompanist, with the exception of classes 410 – 416, 460 - 466 & 480-481. See individual classes for exception.

3. ACCOMPANISTS

Official Accompanists will play for all competitions where stated.

In some competitions a choice is given to use either the official or own accompanist. This choice must be stated at the time of entry. This cannot be changed unless in exceptional circumstances and not after the music has been sent to the official accompanist, which will be 3 weeks prior to the start of the festival. Where an own accompanist is chosen, they (or a substitute provided by the competitor) must also play at any recall performances

In competitions for the Recital Classes, Open Violin, Viola and Cello, Singing Games, All Choirs, Group Music Making, Action Songs, Orchestras Bands and Ensembles, each competitor or group MUST provide their own accompanist.

4. OWN CHOICE MUSIC

- If the official accompanist is required, ONE (complete and legible) photocopy of EACH own choice piece should be sent to the appropriate Section Secretary (see list below) by 26 January 2019.
- This copy (for the accompanist) should be clearly marked with the Competitor's Name and Class Number given in the Syllabus.
- For set book classes, no photocopies are required PROVIDED you have chosen from the SET BOOK. If chosen from an alternative grade list or free own choice (oboe, bassoon and recorder only) ONE (complete and legible) photocopy of EACH own choice piece should be sent to the appropriate Section Secretary (see below) by 26 January 2019.
- A further copy (which can be a photocopy) for the adjudicator, MUST be provided on the day of the competition.
- Please note, in order to comply with copyright legislation, an ORIGINAL copy of the music MUST be available on the day for use by the accompanist if required. Failure to do so may result in the competitor being disqualified.
- Performers must not perform from a photocopy.

All items must be clearly marked with class number and name of competitor, with a separate copy for each performer, even when several competitors have chosen the same item.

5. PROGRAMMES

Notice of competition times and venues will be emailed to entrants. It is, however, the responsibility of the individual competitor to ascertain the exact time and date of their competition by consulting the Official Programme, which remains the official means of communication.

Programmes, priced £2, will be available approximately two weeks before the start of the Festival from Bell Ingram, Sandgate, Ayr, and Ayr Guitar, Alloway Street, Ayr.

6. GRADING

The following basis of Grading will be used to assess performance:

OUTSTANDING	An exceptional performance both technically and artistically.
DISTINCTION	An excellent performance both technically and artistically.
COMMENDED	A convincing performance technically and artistically.
MERIT	A capable performance showing some artistic appreciation and/or technical ability.
MODERATE	A performance showing development of technique and/or communication
FAIR	A performance limited in its communication.

7. ADJUDICATOR

In all competitions the decision of the Adjudicator is final.

8. TROPHIES

In trophy classes, trophies will be presented at the end of the competition. The winner will be asked to undertake its safe custody and return it to the Festival not later than 18th January 2020

Medals will be presented to the winning competitors in all competitions.

9. CERTIFICATES

Certificates may be awarded to the first, second and third places only, depending upon there being sufficient numbers entering. Certificates and Awards may be withheld at the discretion of the Adjudicator or the Committee.

10. ADJUDICATION SHEETS

Competitors are asked to collect these at the end of the class or session at which they have performed.

11. INFRINGEMENT

Infringement of any of these regulations may lead to disqualification.

The Committee reserve the right to alter, modify or cancel any of the arrangements for the Festival as it may deem necessary or expedient, and, except as otherwise stated, its decision in all questions arising out of, or relating to the Festival is final.

12. PRESS PHOTOGRAPHER

It is the policy of the Ayrshire Music Festival to allow Press Photographers to take photos of winners for publication in the local press. If any parent does not wish their child to be photographed by the press, please inform the Steward on duty at the Session.

13. COMMUNICATIONS

1. PURPOSE AND FUNCTION OF AYRSHIRE MUSIC FESTIVAL

Ayrshire Music Festival advances, promotes and encourages amateur performers in the Arts by providing a platform for performance for musicians, instrumentalists, vocalists, speakers and dancers combined with an educational input from professional adjudicators.

2. THE FESTIVAL ENVIRONMENT

It is the policy of Ayrshire Music Festival to inform and involve parents, guardians, carers and teachers in partnership in order to ensure, as far as is reasonably practicable, a safe environment at the Festival. Competing groups should be accompanied by the correct ratio of supervisory adults. Ayrshire Music Festival is administered and staffed by volunteers, with professional contributions from adjudicators and accompanists.

3. TO WHOM DOES THIS POLICY APPLY

This policy relates to children under the age of 18 years and those vulnerable adults of any age who are identified to the organisers prior to their arrival at the Festival. This should be done by contacting the Ayrshire Music Festival Chairman. In recognising the needs of children from minority ethnic groups and children who are disabled, the Festival actively seeks to meet needs notified to the Festival by parents, guardians, carers or teachers.

4. FESTIVAL PERSONNEL

Festival Personnel will be selected by the Committee, and during the Festival all Committee Members and volunteers will be identified by the wearing of suitable badges. Anyone wearing a badge may be approached and will be able to give directions to the appropriate committee member who will deal with any problem. The Director of Stewarding will maintain a register of all volunteers, who will sign in each day they are on duty. Every problem will be taken seriously and will be documented and dated.

5. PREPARATION FOR ATTENDANCE AT THE FESTIVAL

Those who have submitted entries will be notified of the Child Protection Policy for the Festival. They will also be informed of the date, time and venue of the class entered. Particular attention will be drawn to the requirement that where parents, guardians or carers are not personally attending with their children, it is their responsibility to ensure that their children are accompanied and adequately supervised at the Festival by responsible adults acting on their behalf.

6. PERFORMANCE AREAS, ASSEMBLY ROOMS AND CHANGING ROOMS

Stewards will be in attendance at each venue but will not be responsible for supervision of competitors. Parents/ Guardians/ Carers and/or teachers must ensure that children or vulnerable adults are adequately supervised by the correct ratio of supervisors until they are marshalled for performance. Changing areas for dance will be single sex. Changing areas will be restricted to competitors and their badged Supervisors.

7. PHOTOGRAPHS, VIDEOTAPES, AUDIOTAPES, DIGITAL RECORDING AND PRESS PHOTOGRAPHY

There will be no photography, videoing or tape recording of any kind permitted within the venues. Photographers from the local Press will be permitted to photograph performers between or after competitions, when parents, guardians, carers or teachers are present to supervise.

8. THE LEGISLATION AND GUIDANCE THAT SUPPORTS THIS POLICY

The Protection of Vulnerable Groups (Scotland) Act 2009, the Protection of Children (Scotland) Act 2003; Commissioner for Children and Young People (Scotland) Act 2003; The Police Act 1997; Children (Scotland) Act 1995

9. RESPONSIBILITY

Ayrshire Music Festival is organised by a voluntary Committee who have no statutory responsibility to investigate allegations of child abuse. It has, however, responsibility to refer any concerns regarding the safety of a child to the appropriate agency for investigation. The welfare of the child is paramount at all times. Any concern about a child will be referred to a Committee Member who should take all appropriate action about the concerns and decide whether to take further action by the way of referral to the Social work Department. Any such referral will be recorded. In case of an emergency the designated Committee Member will ensure medical attention is received or the Police alerted as appropriate. The Police have power to act immediately to protect the child.

10. POLICY REVIEW

The Ayrshire Music Festival Committee will constantly review their policy, upgrading it as necessary. In doing this they will look to the British and International Federation of Festivals for support, and that body in turn will look to other agencies for good practice, most notably the NSPCC and the Creative Scotland policy guidelines.

8. Your rights

You have various rights in respect of the personal data we hold about you. These rights are set out in more detail below:

- a. The right to be informed about the collection and use of your personal data;
- b. The right to access to your personal information;
- c. The right to object to processing of your personal information;
- d. The right to restrict the processing of your personal information;
- e. The right to personal data portability;
- f. The right to rectify your personal information;
- g. The right to erase your personal information;
- h. Rights in relation to automated decision making and profiling.

If you make a request relating to any of the rights listed above, we will consider each request in accordance with all applicable data protection laws and regulations. No administration fee will be charged for considering and/or complying with such a request unless the request is deemed to be excessive in nature.

Upon successful verification of your identity you are entitled to obtain the following information about your own personal information:

- a. The purposes of the collection, processing, use and storage of your personal data.
- b. The categories of personal data stored about you.
- c. The recipients or categories of recipients to whom your personal data has been or may be transmitted, along with the location of those recipients.
- d. The envisaged period of storage for your personal data or the rationale for determining the storage period.
- e. The use of any automated decision-making and/or profiling.

If you want to exercise any of these rights or make a complaint, please contact us by email at info@ayrshiremusicfestival.org.uk or write to:

The Data Manager,
Ayrshire Music Festival,
49 Kirk Street,
Prestwick
KA9 1AU

You can also make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office and the contact details and further information about how to do this can be found at: <https://ico.org.uk/>

In certain circumstances we might not be able to provide you with access to some of your personal information, but where appropriate, we will notify you of the reasons for this.

9. How long do you keep my information for?

Your personal data will not be retained by the festival for longer than necessary in relation to the purposes for which it was originally collected, or for which it was further processed, subject to certain legal obligations mentioned below.

We will retain personal data in accordance with our data retention policy set out below. We review our data retention periods for personal data on a regular basis.

We will hold personal data relating to:

- Your festival entry for 18 months following the end the festival. Trophy winners' details will be retained until the trophies are returned safely to the festival.
- Employment or volunteering with the festival for 3 years following the end of your employment or volunteering with us.
- Legacies or donations for 7 years after to legacy or donation is received.
- Subscribing to our newsletter or email updates about future festivals - you can unsubscribe at any time from our mailing list.

We are legally required to hold some personal data to fulfil statutory obligations, for example the collection and reporting of Gift Aid to HMRC or to support certain financial transactions.

The law allows you to withdraw your consent to any usage of your data at any time without needing to specify a reason. You can withdraw your consent by emailing us at info@ayrshiremusicfestival.org.uk
